

TAKE CHARGE OF YOUR RECOVERY

Who is BenchmarcTM For?

Your healthcare professional combines years of training, research and technology to deliver modern treatment plans specific to you and your condition. That plan doesn't end when you leave the clinic, in fact, its ultimate success depends upon you.

BenchmarcTM is for patients who wish to take charge of their health, communicate to their healthcare professional key milestones throughout their recovery, and compare (benchmark) their progress against thousands of other patients on the same journey. This data allows you and your physician to manage a personalized recovery program aimed at achieving your best possible outcome.

In an era where we already track our weight, diet and exercise, why not also track your health? Your recovery may depend on it.
